

PARTNER AGREEMENT

Partner Agreement – English

MeeFX Ltd., hereinafter referred to as the “Company” and the client, who opens an IB/Partner account on meefx hereinafter referred to as the “Introducing Broker/IB/PARTNER”, collectively referred to as the “Party” will agree to the Partner Agreement below:

1. General requirements

- 1.1. This Agreement is an integral part of the Client Agreement.
- 1.2. To register as an Introducing Broker, the client is required to do the following:
 - 1.2.1. Register in the Personal Area contained on the Company's website.
 - 1.2.2. Agree to this Partner Agreement and receive a confirmation E-mail containing the opening of an IB account at MeeFX.
 - 1.2.3. Receive Introducing Broker's personal data in the form of an IB account number.
 - 1.2.4. The Company has the right to request a personal ID or other document (which is valid according to the laws in force in the client's country) from the Introducing Broker, and to carry out regular checks on a regular basis.
- 1.3. Introducing Brokers have the right to choose promotional materials provided free of charge by the Company on the Company's website and use such promotional materials on their own website or can also use the referral link provided by the Company.
- 1.4. After the Introducing Broker fulfills all the requirements in point 1.2, the IB account will be activated immediately. An e-mail containing a notification will be sent automatically to the e-mail registered by the Introducing Broker during registration.
- 1.5. The Company and the Introducing Broker make a commitment aimed at getting new clients to register under an IB account and trade on the Forex market using all the indicators provided by the Company.
- 1.6. The Introducing Broker makes a commitment to this Partner Agreement, which is to find and get as many clients as possible for the Company. The Introducing Broker is also willing to fulfill all obligations and will acquire all rights from this Partner Agreement. When the Introducing Broker makes the aforementioned commitments, the Introducing Broker has the right to act according to his rights provided that the client registers and trades with the Company as a result.
- 1.7. The Introducing Broker unconditionally accepts that all the clients it acquires are the Company's clients.

2. Cooperation of both parties

- 2.1. This agreement does not regulate the employment relationship or business relationship between the two parties. Introducing Brokers are prohibited from using names, logos, and other copyright-protected materials (including advertisements, brochure printing, business cards, announcements, publications) by the Company, unless the Company has given written permission. An Introducing Broker has the right as a client of the Company to carry out all activities aimed at attracting clients to register and trade with the Company. Introducing Brokers have the right to use all promotional materials provided by the Company.

- 2.2. The Company is not responsible for the events carried out by the Introducing Broker such as:
 - 2.2.1. Any activity carried out by an Introducing Broker that violates one or more of the terms and conditions of this Partner Agreement.
 - 2.2.2. All Introducing Broker activities are carried out outside of the rights granted by the Company.
 - 2.2.3. All damages or losses caused by the Introducing Broker to third parties.
 - 2.2.4. Claims from clients made to the Introducing Broker due to failure to fulfill the rights and obligations of point 3.1 in this Partner Agreement.
- 2.3. Both parties are obliged to follow all the terms and conditions of the Partner Agreement and the Client Agreement, unless there is an official statement signed by the Company not to follow one of the Agreements.

3. Introducing Broker's Rights and Responsibilities

- 3.1. When the Introducing Broker agrees to this Partner Agreement, the Company is obliged to provide / pay the following, namely:
 - 3.1.1. Fees for Introducing Brokers when serving advertisements for the Company.
 - 3.1.2. An Introducing Broker has the right to carry out any activity in accordance with the laws of the Introducing Broker's Country to acquire new clients for the Company.
 - 3.1.3. Provide information in the form of activities, services, advantages, and other important Company information to new clients.
 - 3.1.4. Provide all important information (including address, contact, general and special conditions of the Company's services) about the Company.
 - 3.1.5. Provide information to new clients regarding the Company's website (meefx) and the Company's structure, information and comments contained in the Company's website if necessary
- 3.2. The Introducing Broker is obliged to ensure that all actions taken to acquire new clients for the Company are in accordance with the laws and regulations in force in the Introducing Broker's country.
- 3.3. The Introducing Broker is obliged to notify the Company if there are any disturbances related to the activities being carried out.
- 3.4. Introducing Brokers are required to acquire clients for the Company.
- 3.5. A client is considered by the Company to be acquired by an Introducing Broker if it fulfills one of the following conditions:
 - 3.5.1. Client registers using a special link (referral link) provided by the Introducing Broker.
 - 3.5.2. The Client writes a request to the Company to register with the Partner. This request will be processed if the client has only 10 calendar days to register on the official meefx website and the client is not registered with other Partners.
- 3.6. The Company has the right to register the Client into the Partner for 10 days after the Client registers on the official meefx website. The Partner is obliged to provide evidence that the Client registered via the referral link and explain why there was a failure to register the Client in his partnership network in accordance with clause 3.5. of this Agreement.

- 3.7. An Introducing Broker is required to provide the Company with advertising materials (including business cards) to support the Introducing Broker prior to conducting an advertising campaign to attract new clients.
- 3.8. Introducing Brokers are prohibited from using fraudulent advertising methods to promote the Company. The following are activities that are prohibited by Introducing Brokers:
 - 3.8.1. APS (Active Promotion Systems);
 - 3.8.2. Advertising on immoral websites (including pornography);
 - 3.8.3. Advertisements on the website that do not comply with applicable laws in the Introducing Broker's country;
 - 3.8.4. Spam and spamdexing;
 - 3.8.5. Advertisements that do not contain a complete description of the Company's services, or fail to explain the risks and services of the Company to clients;
 - 3.8.6. Advertisements that contain false information about the Company or do not comply with applicable laws in the Introducing Broker's country;
 - 3.8.7. Other promotional activities that may damage the positive reputation of the Company;
 - 3.8.8. Other promotional activities of a fraudulent nature.
- 3.9. Introducing Brokers do not have the right to:
 - 3.9.1. Registering and/or using a domain containing "meefx" or any other variant of it, e.g.: fmeefx, Meefxs, etc.
 - 3.9.2. Registering a business and/or using a name for the business that contains "meefx" or other variants of it, e.g.: fmeefx, meefxs, etc.
 - 3.9.3. An Introducing Broker (IB) is not entitled to create their own application using the meefx logo and company name.
 - 3.9.4. Introducing Brokers are prohibited from conducting monetary relations with clients (including receiving funds, transfers between banks, payments by credit card, etc.).
 - 3.9.5. Introducing Brokers are obliged to maintain all confidentiality regarding the activities carried out by the Company, and/or confidential information of the Company which is only provided to Introducing Brokers.
 - 3.9.6. Introducing Brokers are required to notify the Company if they become aware of anything that may result in (or have consequences) losses for the Company.
 - 3.9.7. If a client makes a claim against the Company related to the activities of an Introducing Broker, the Introducing Broker is obliged to handle the claim on its own without involving the Company.
 - 3.9.8. The Introducing Broker is obliged to remind the client about the risks of trading on the Forex market before the client signs the Client Agreement.
- 3.10. The Company does not recommend Introducing Brokers to provide recommendations/advice to clients regarding trading operations and/or trading strategies, or in any other way that could influence the decisions of clients. The Company is not fully responsible for the consequences of the recommendations or advice provided by the Introducing Broker to its clients.
- 3.11. Introducing Brokers do not have the right to publish, participate in, or cooperate in publishing material in the mass media, send letters or notes to newspapers, or cooperate in writing articles published in newspapers, magazines, blogs, internet forums, and other mass media. which may injure the positive reputation of the Company.

- 3.12. The Introducing Broker is obliged to notify the client of the Introducing Broker's status within the Company and the privileges obtained by the Introducing Broker before the client registers and forms a relationship with the Introducing Broker.

4. Company Rights and Obligations

- 4.1. The Company is obliged to provide assistance to the Introducing Broker in carrying out this Partner Agreement.
- 4.2. The Company is obliged to pay a certain amount of commission to the Introducing Broker in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 4.3. The Company is fully responsible for the orders, transactions, trading and calculation of the Introducing Broker's trading results. The Company is also obliged to provide all trading reports from the Introducing Broker (no more than 4 reports per month, unless there are other provisions made between the two Parties).
- 4.4. The Company is obliged to open an account for a client acquired by an Introducing Broker in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Client Agreement.
- 4.5. The company is required to provide access in the form of login and password (set automatically by the system) to clients so that clients can carry out all trading activities.
- 4.6. The company is obliged to calculate the trades made by the client.
- 4.7. The Company reserves the right to request a report on all promotional activities carried out by the Introducing Broker in attracting clients.
- 4.8. The Company reserves the right to unilaterally terminate this Partner Agreement if the Introducing Broker is unable to acquire 5 active clients within 90 days of being registered as an Introducing Broker.
- 4.9. The Company reserves the right to issue one or more client accounts already registered in the Introducing Broker partnership network if the respective client does not deposit funds within 30 days after registration of the Personal Area.
- 4.10. The Company reserves the right to withdraw active clients from within the Introducing Broker partnership network if the Introducing Broker is deemed to have failed to fulfill one or more of the terms and conditions of this Partner Agreement.
- 4.11. The Company has the right to notify the client that the Introducing Broker gets a reward from the trading results made by the client as stated in this Partner Agreement.
- 4.12. If the Company receives a message from the payment system stating that a client is suspected of committing fraudulent activities, the Company reserves the right to release that client from the Introducing Broker and cancel all Introducing Broker commissions associated with that client.
- 4.13. If the Company requests proof (scanned copy of the card), the client must send it within 24 hours, otherwise the Company reserves the right to release the client automatically until the client sends a copy of the card used for deposit, only after that the client will be re-embedded. Commissions during the discharge period will not be awarded to partners.

- 4.14. The Company has the right to cancel this Agreement unilaterally if the Company judges that the Introducing Broker is unable to fulfill the material conditions in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 4.15. If an Introducing Broker (IB) violates the terms of this agreement, then the company has the right to terminate the agreement with the IB without prior notice, block the IB account, remove all clients from the Introducing Broker (IB) network and cancel bonuses and all commissions earned by the IB from clients - the client. Termination of the agreement means releasing the Company's obligations in relation to the payment of commissions and other benefits to the Introducing Broker (IB). In accordance with the terms of the Agreement, the rules and agreements related to privacy will remain in effect even after the agreement has ended.
- 4.16. The Company reserves the right to deactivate an IB account if the Introducing Broker does not use it for more than one (1) calendar year (including but not limited to login activities, setting changes, commission withdrawals). Account deactivation indicates that the Company has stopped calculating commissions, and the account will be archived.

5. Limitations of the authority of an Introducing Broker

- 5.1. Introducing Brokers are prohibited from doing the following things without the permission of the Company:
- 5.1.1. Make any agreement on behalf of the Company with any person or legal entity.
 - 5.1.2. Provide guarantees and / or promises (including making representations) regarding payments on each Agreement set by the Company.
 - 5.1.3. To use the content of the Company's website and/or mobile applications and other intellectual property assets of the Company, including but not limited to all copyrights, trademarks, patents, service marks, trade names, software codes, icons, logos, characters, layouts, trade secrets, buttons, color schemes, graphics, etc. Introducing Brokers are not permitted to use the Company's intellectual property assets without the prior written permission of the Company. It is strictly forbidden to use the Company's domain name, application name, application description, keywords, images or videos placed on the Company's website and/or similar mobile applications. Violation of this rule will be deemed a flagrant violation of this Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated until the provisions of paragraph 5.
- 5.2. Introducing Brokers are prohibited from:
- 5.2.1. Modify the promo code that has been determined by the Company available in the Personal Area. If the Company finds evidence of modification of the code, then this Agreement is deemed void, and the Company will not pay any prizes to the Introducing Broker.
- 5.3. The limitations listed in points 5.1 and 5.2 are effective since this Partner Agreement is signed by both Parties and will remain in effect for 5 years after this Partner Agreement is canceled.
- 5.4. In case the Introducing Broker fails to comply with the terms and conditions of this Partner Agreement, including activities or statements (unauthorized) that causes the client to sue the Company, the Introducing Broker is obliged to pay compensation for the costs incurred by the Company. The losses referred to here are all losses (real losses) including the restoration of the Company's good name, the loss of the Company's profits during the period this Partner Agreement is supposed to run (without any defamation, and other activities that cause losses to the Company). The Introducing Broker does not have the right to dispute the difference in the amount of losses suffered by the Company as compensation for the cancellation of this Partner Agreement.

- 5.5. If the Introducing Broker violates the terms of this Partner Agreement, the Company has the right to block the Introducing Broker's IB account and real trading account until all losses are paid by the Introducing Broker. The Company has the right to cover the losses caused by the Introducing Broker using the prizes obtained by the Introducing Broker or through other payment systems specified in the Client Agreement.
- 5.6. If there is a similarity of data between an Introducing Broker and a client in its partnership network (for example, but not limited to data: addresses, emails, phone numbers, IP addresses, etc.) then that client will be automatically removed from the Introducing Broker partner network. . If the Company finds two or more real accounts trading using one IP address, then the Company considers those accounts to be joined in a network of partnerships, and the Company will not pay commission for the trading results of these accounts.
- 5.7. The Company is obliged to require all clients (including clients who enter the partnership network of the Introducing Broker) to verify the Personal Area, so that clients can withdraw funds and commissions or receive commissions from the Partner's account.
- 5.8. With respect to trading using a practice known as "churning" or persuasion, no commission will be paid and the involved client(s) will be released. Churning is considered, but not limited to, the practice of excessive execution of trades through the client's account for the purpose of generating commissions. In the case of this kind of trading activity or/and others

6. The principle of how an Introducing Broker works to get clients

- 6.1. An Introducing Broker has the right to create a website dedicated to all activities in attracting clients as stipulated in point 3 of this Partner Agreement.
- 6.2. The following are ways that an Introducing Broker can do to attract new clients to its network of partnerships:
 - 6.2.1. The Client uses the referral link (provided by the Introducing Broker) to register with the Company.
 - 6.2.2. The Client may request to be included in an Introducing Broker by submitting a request in writing to the Company enclosing his ID. Requests can be approved if they meet the following conditions:
 - The client has not been registered under another Introducing Broker (the client must follow the process stated in clause .6.2.3. in case of such a case).
 - The Client never opens a trading order on any trading account in his Personal Area. Trading orders on the Bonus Account are not included in the calculation.
 - If the Client has previously opened a trading order on a Real account, the request will be approved only if it is submitted within 7 calendar days of the Client registering on the official meefx website.

- The Introducing Broker has registered its Partner account before the Client registers an account on the official meefx website.
 - Clients registered under a particular Introducing Broker can change the Introducing Broker by submitting a written request to the Company enclosing his ID. Clients can only change an Introducing Broker once. Requests can be approved if they meet the following conditions:
 - The Client never opens a trading order on any trading account in his Personal Area. Trading orders on the Bonus Account are not included in the calculation.
 - If the Client has previously opened a trading order on a Real account, the request will be approved only if it is submitted within 10 calendar days of the Client registering on the official meefx website
 - The Introducing Broker has registered its Partner account before the Client registers an account on the official meefx website
- 6.3. The client has the right to leave his partner and become a client of the company at any time. If the Client has left the partner, then the Client cannot re-enter the partner in accordance with article 6.4. Partners are prohibited from accepting gifts from trading on their own accounts or accounts owned by business teams or other cooperating parties (partners as individuals or in the form of legal entities).
- 6.4. An Introducing Broker is prohibited from accepting any prizes resulting from trading on his own account, his family's account, or the account of a legal entity.
7. Commissions and fees that can be earned by Introducing Brokers
- 7.1. The company pays partner commission (IB) for transactions (orders opened and then closed) from client accounts of MT4 accounts under the partnership network, except orders closed due to partial close or multiple close in accordance with clause 7.3. of this Agreement.
- 7.1.1. Commission calculations and commission payments are set out in points 7.2 and 7.3.
- 7.2. Payment of all commissions to the Introducing Broker from the trading results of all new clients drawn into the partnership network will be paid by the Company within 24 hours after the transaction of the said client takes place.
- 7.3. Meefx Partner Commission:
- 7.3.1. For "ProIB" accounts the partner commission is 45 usd/lot and 5 usd Level 2 for each transaction (opened and then closed orders) executed by the Client obtained. The difference between the opening and closing prices on a full trade must be above 60 points and 3 minutes, whether it is profitable or not.
- 7.3.2. For "Micro" accounts it is up to 16 USD/lot and 2 usd at level 2 for every full transaction (opened and then closed orders) executed by the Client obtained. The difference between the opening and closing prices on a full trade must be above 60 points and 3 minutes, whether it is profitable or not.
- 7.3.3. For "Standard" accounts the partner commission is 12 USD/lot and 1 usd for each transaction (opened and then closed orders) made by the client. The difference between the price of opening and closing an order on a single transaction must exceed 60 points and 3 minutes regardless of whether the order was profitable or not.

- 7.3.4. For "ECN" accounts the partner commission is 1 USD/lot for each transaction (opened and then closed orders) made by the client. The difference between the price of opening and closing an order on a single transaction must exceed 60 points and 3 minutes regardless of whether the order was profitable or not.
- 7.4. In the event that partner commissions are received on Buy and Sell orders opened for the same instrument and executed on the market simultaneously, the Company has grounds to consider the partner's actions as a form of fraud and reserves the right to cancel the commission paid and release the involved client(s).
- 7.5. The commission from the Introducing Broker to the accounts of clients participating in the bonus program of the company is paid 50% of the estimated calculation (in clause 7.3.).
- 7.6. The commission that the Company pays to an Introducing Broker from the results of a client's trading in the partnership network using a no-deposit bonus account can only occur if the client makes a certain amount of deposit into the bonus account.
- 7.7. In the case that the commission that must be paid by the Company to the Introducing Broker is only from the trading results of one client in the partnership network where the commission that can be earned exceeds a total of 30% of the Introducing Broker's commission income within a period of 1 (one) to 6 (six) months, then The company reserves the right to cancel the commission.
- 7.8. In the case that the commission payable by the Company to the Introducing Broker from the trading results of one client in the partnership network exceeds 60% of the total deposit for this partner's account, then the commission will be arranged by the Company to be paid less than 60% of the total deposit for this partner's account. .
- 7.9. The commission earned by an Introducing Broker cannot exceed 50% of the average equity for all client accounts in the partnership network within 1 month. The method of calculating the average equity is as follows: , where
E - Average Equity,
E1 - Equity at the beginning of the month for all client accounts in the partnership network
E2 - Equity at the end of the month for all client accounts in the partnership network.
- 7.10. Commission that must be paid by the Company to the Introducing Broker in accordance with the provisions in point 7.3. No other commissions or other fees are paid by the Company to the Introducing Broker.
- 7.11. The commission that the Company must pay to the Introducing Broker is in US Dollars regardless of the country of residence of the Introducing Broker, and is transferred to the account of the partner of the Introducing Broker.
- 7.12. The commission that the Company is obliged to pay to the Introducing Broker from the trading results of clients in the network of partnerships that activate the "Fix Rate" option is calculated in the following way: commission, calculated based on the volume of orders traded by the client multiplied by (currency value " Fix Rate" divided by the currency value prevailing in the market).
- 7.13. Deposits/Withdrawals from Introducing Broker partner accounts are regulated according to the payment systems available from the Company. If the deposit received by the partner account from the Introducing Broker is made through a debit payment system (only certain countries can use this payment system) / credit card, then the commission available for withdrawal can be withdrawn by the Introducing Broker can be delayed up to 45 working days with the possibility of withdrawal back in accordance with the notification given by the Company to the Introducing Broker.

7.14. In unstable market conditions, the Company has the right to determine the payment system that can be used by the Introducing Broker to withdraw funds.

7.15. The Company reserves the right to modify the terms of the commission that must be paid to the Introducing Broker in accordance with the provisions in point 10.3 of this Partner Agreement.

7.16. In the case of a Balance Fix occurring on a client's trading account, the company has the right to deduct the amount of the compensated funds from the total amount of the Partner's commission for this client's trading which is paid on the same day that the balance fix occurs.

8. Validity period

8.1. This Partner Agreement comes into force when the Introducing Broker accepts this Agreement which is posted on the Company's website.

8.2. The validity period of this Partner Agreement is 12 months after being agreed by both parties. The Company has the right to ask the Introducing Broker to sign the Partner Agreement periodically.

8.3. If neither Party decides to terminate this Partner Agreement 30 days before the the validity of this Agreement expires, then this Partner Agreement is automatically extended for an indefinite period.

9. Force Majeure

9.1. Neither party shall be liable for any partial or complete failure to comply with this Agreement caused by Force Majeure circumstances (riots, civil wars, wars, insurgencies, international interventions, government actions (including but without limitation foreign exchange controls, currency devaluation). money), natural disasters, and other unavoidable events that are not dependent on either Party).

9.2. A party who is unable to fulfill this Agreement during a Force Majeure situation is obliged to notify the other Party about this in writing a maximum of 5 days after the event occurs.

9.3. The facts submitted by one of the Parties regarding the Force Majeure situation must be confirmed by the highest authority or the ruling party of the country where the Party resides. Failure to notify the other Party in a timely manner may be considered as a basis for that Party to disclaim its responsibilities from this Partner Agreement.

9.4. In case of inability to fulfill this Partner Agreement within 6 months after the Force Majeure event, this Partner Agreement is deemed void.

10. Other terms

10.1. If there is a dispute due to this Partner Agreement, the decision of the Company is final and cannot be contested by anyone.

- 10.2. In the case that there is no requirement to fulfill the agreement of one of the Parties, the other Party is not released from its obligations in accordance with the rules contained in this Agreement (and also does not indicate its refusal).
- 10.3. The Introducing Broker accepts that the Company may modify certain conditions of this Agreement. The Introducing Broker is obliged to check all modifications (if any) made by the Company in this Agreement.
- 10.4. Consider one of the following media to be used as a communication tool:
 - 10.4.1. E-mail;
 - 10.4.2. Ordinary mail;
 - 10.4.3. Write comments in the "Company News" section of the Company's website.
- 10.5. The Company has the right to use the contact information, address (if required), E-mail and other personal data entered during registration (or last contact information) of the Introducing Broker.
- 10.6. Any type of message submitted by the Company is deemed to have been received by the Introducing Broker within:
 - 10.6.1. 1 hour after the E-mail is sent by the Company;
 - 10.6.2. 7 days after the letter is sent by the Company;
 - 10.6.3. 1 hour after the information is posted on the Company's website.
- 10.7. The Introducing Broker is obliged to notify the Company of any changes in its contact information (provided at registration) within 5 working days. Notifications can be made by Email, regular mail, or other means of communication that guarantee:
 - 10.7.1. Information arrives at the right time;
 - 10.7.2. Change information is provided by the Introducing Broker.
- 10.8. Either Party may cancel this Agreement unilaterally provided that it notifies the other Party not less than 30 days before the cancellation of the Agreement.
- 10.9. This Agreement can be legally canceled at the request of either Party, if either Party is deemed to have violated the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement or in other cases violates the laws of the country of residence of the Party. By agreeing to this Partner Agreement the Introducing Broker confirms that: The Introducing Broker has read all the points of this Partner Agreement. Understand and accept all terms and conditions of this Partner Agreement.